Red numbers are dropped races

Hi All

I am filling in for Judy today

Light winds meant only 5 races sailed today. The wind was fairly constant from the NE which meant skippers had to use a bit of strategy on the course in order to maintain boat speed.

There was the odd altercation at the top mark because of the light airs, which created rafting and subjecting some boats away from their intended course. It is sometimes wiser to go around on the outside and avoid the pile up! No Scratch series today

Judy the lads are all thinking of you and take this opportunity to wish John a smooth recovery

Have a great week cheers Bunny

PS could you sort out the handicaps please
